Four bedroom home available in Malden! If you're searching for a home with options of perhaps 3 bedrooms and an office or 2 bedrooms, an office, and a music room, you can have that, too! This home has multiple options for you to choose what works best for your family. A galley-style kitchen offers you the convenience of cooking your meals steps away from the office or reach around the corner and easily "swap laundry". Upstairs consists of 1 bedroom, a bathroom, and a small storage area. Sitting on a corner lot, near a city park, you will have a large yard, fenced on the side and back for your fur-babies to enjoy, a two-car, partially covered carport with a storage area and a workshop. Want a spot to sit and relax and have some privacy to read a book or "hide from the world"? You are in luck. A screened-in porch/sunroom area is hidden by the privacy fence, so you can "escape" for a few minutes to unwind after a long day! Owners are offering a $1,500 flooring allowance.
